Section 1.4 Employer agrees that during the term of this Agreement, it shall not assert or challenge the supervisory or non-supervisory status, as defined in section 2(11) of the National Labor Relations Act, of any bargaining unit employees. The bargaining unit employees shall not have the authority to hire, transfer, suspend, layoff, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward, or discipline other employees, or responsibly to direct them, or to adjust their grievances or effectively recommend such actions or exercise independent judgment in any such regard unless the exercise of the foregoing is merely routine or clerical in nature.

ARTICLE 2. UNION SHOP AND CHECK OFF

Section 2.1 Union Membership

To the extent not inconsistent with the law, employees covered by this Agreement at the time it becomes effective who are members of the union at the time shall be required as condition of continued employment, to continue membership in the Union for the duration of this Agreement. Employees covered by this Agreement who are not members of the Union at the time that this Agreement becomes effective shall be required, to the extent not inconsistent with the law and as a condition of continued employment, to become members of the Union on or after the thirtieth (30th) calendar day following the effective date of this Agreement. Employees hired, rehired, reinstated or transferred into a bargaining unit position after the effective date of this Agreement shall be required, to the extent not inconsistent with the law and as condition of employment, to become members of the Union on or after the thirtieth (30th) calendar day following the initiation of their employment. An employee who shall tender initiation fees (if not already a member) and periodic dues uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership shall be deemed to meet this condition.

Section 2.2. To the extent not inconsistent with the law, employees who are required to tender periodic dues (uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership) pursuant to Section 1 and fail to do so will not be retained in the bargaining unit by the Hospital. No employee shall be terminated from the bargaining unit under this Article, however, unless he/she has failed to tender delinquent dues within twenty (20) days after written notice from the Union of such delinquency and Meadowlands is advised of such failure in a written request for removal of the employee from the bargaining unit work. Deductions for employees rehired by the Hospital or reinstated in the Union shall require a new written authorization.

Notwithstanding the above, the Hospital shall not be obliged to make dues deductions of any kind from any Employee who, during any dues month involved, shall have failed to receive sufficient wages to equal the dues deduction.

Section 2.4 Indemnification

The Union will indemnify and save the Hospital harmless against any and all claims, demands or other forms of liability that may arise out of or by reason of, any action taken or not taken by the Hospital, at the request of the Union, in violation of federal or state law. To the best of the Hospital's ability all information will be provided to the Union by electronic mail.

Section 2.6 COPE

Upon receipt of a voluntary, duly authorized check off authorization, the Hospital shall deduct such amount of money authorized by employees for the Union's political action fund called COPE. The amount of money deducted shall be forwarded consistent with the provisions above. It is understood that participation in the Nurse Political Action Fund is strictly voluntary on the part of employees.

ARTICLE 3. PROBATIONARY PERIOD

Section 3.1 Newly hired employees shall be considered probationary for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of hire.

Section 3.2 Where a new Employee being trained for a job spends less than fifty percent (50%) of his/her time on the job, only such time on the job shall be counted as employment for purposes of computing the probationary period.

Section 3.3 The probationary period for part-time employees whose regularly scheduled hours are twenty-five (25) or less shall be twice the length of the probationary period of full-time employees.

Section 3.4 Probationary periods may be extended at the sole discretion of the Hospital.

ARTICLE 5. SENIORITY

Section 5.1 Definitions

- (a) Seniority is defined as the length of time an employee has been continuously employed in any capacity by the hospital.
- (b) Classification seniority is defined as the length of time an employee has worked continuously in a specific job classification within a department.

Section 5.2 Accrual

- (a) An Employee's seniority shall commence after the completion of his/her probationary period and shall be retroactive to the date of his/her most recent hire, except those Employees who have been permitted to return to the Hospital's employment within three (3) months after resigning in good standing. They shall have seniority retroactive to their original date of hire.
- (b) Seniority and classification seniority shall accrue during an approved continuous leave of absence as outlined in Article 6 and during an authorized leave pursuant to the Family Medical Leave Act or New Jersey Family Leave Act as outlined in Article 6, provided that the employee returns to work immediately following the expiration of such leave of absence.
- (c) Seniority shall accrue within each job classification (i.e., full-time, part-time and per diem). Full-time employees shall have seniority within their job classifications and also over the seniority of part-time employees and per diems. Part-time employees shall have seniority within their job classification and also over the seniority of per diem employees. Per diem employees shall have seniority only within their job classification.
- (d) Per diem employees who convert to full-time status shall be credited with full-time seniority on the following basis: three years as a per diem will equal one year of full-time seniority. Any employee who moves from part time to full time status shall have his/her years as part time credited "2 for 1" for the purpose of determining seniority.
- (e) When per diem employee changes status to a full-time or part-time position, the insurance benefit eligibility period shall be waived if the employee has worked the equivalent of a .5 position for the six-month period prior to the change. When an employee changes status from part time to full time, classification, area (unit) seniority shall be forfeited for a period of 6 (six) months.

Section 5.3 Loss of Seniority

An employee's seniority shall be lost when he/she:

- (a) resigns voluntarily;
 - (b) is discharged for cause;
 - (c) fails to return to work immediately following the expiration of an approved official leave of absence;
 - (d) is laid off for a period of six (6) months or a period exceeding the length of the employee's seniority, whichever is less; or
 - (e) fails to return to work on a recall from layoff, within five (5) calendar days after the Hospital has sent notice to him/her to return by certified letter to the last address furnished to the Hospital by the Employee. A change in status to or from per diem shall not constitute a break in service.
- (f) The Hospital shall allow a reasonable delay in the return to work date should the employee have obtained another job, not to exceed two weeks.

Section 5.4 Application

- a) Seniority shall apply in the computation and determination of eligibility for all benefits where length-of-service is a factor pursuant to this Agreement.
- (b) Classification seniority shall apply in layoffs and recalls.

Section 5.5 Layoff

- A. Except in emergencies, in the event of a layoff within a job classification, the Hospital, prior to layoff will:
- 1. give the Union and the affected employee(s) ten (10) days notice or ten (10) days pay in lieu thereof at the option of the Hospital;
 - 2. notify the Union, in writing, of all employees affected, their dates of hire, job classifications, classification seniority and seniority; provide the Union with a total listing of all Union members, including dates of hire, classification, classification seniority and seniority;

3. allow seven (7) calendar days from time of receipt of written notification to the Union to meet and attempt to resolve all matters pertaining to the layoff(s).

B. In the event of a layoff within a job classification, probationary employees within that job classification shall be laid off first. Non-probationary Employees shall be the next to be laid off in inverse order of their classification seniority.

C. In the event an employee is scheduled to be laid off in one department and there exists a vacant position in another department that the employee is fully qualified to perform, then seniority shall prevail in assigning such Employees scheduled to be laid off to such vacant jobs.

D. In the event there are no vacancies, an employee has the right to exercise his/her seniority to bump employee with the least seniority in a job classification in which he/she is fully qualified to perform.

Section 5.6 Bumping

A. In the event of a layoff of an employee, there shall occur a maximum of only one "bump" in the Hospital. The only employee who may be bumped shall be the employee with the least seniority. When determining "least seniority," a full-time employee will bump a less senior full-time employee first, less senior part-time employee if there is no less senior full-time employee to bump, so long as the part time employee being bumped has less seniority pursuant to Section 5.2c, unless the employee seeking to bump has ten (10) years of full time service. For the purposes of this entire provision per diem seniority is not considered. Part-time employees will bump only employees in the part-time status. An employee who is "bumped" shall himself/herself have no bumping rights.

B. A full time employee shall have the option of accepting the lay-off rather than bumping into the part-time position.

Section 5.7 Recall

A. Whenever a vacancy occurs in a job classification, employees on layoff with classification seniority shall be recalled in accordance with their classification seniority in the reverse order in which they were laid off. If a vacancy occurs in a job classification where no Employee on layoff has classification seniority, then the laid off employee with the most seniority will be recalled if he/she is fully qualified to perform the work, and if not, the employee with the next highest seniority will be eligible for recall, and so on.

B. Probationary employees who have been laid off have no recall rights.

C. A part-time employee on layoff shall have recall rights to a full-time position only if he/she is willing to work the required full-time schedule of hours.

Employees seeking such leave must adhere to notice, documentation and other requirements as required by Hospital policy as long as such requirements are consistent with federal and state law. Employees shall be entitled to a total of 12 weeks of leave in an eligible year as defined under Hospital policy. Employees who are eligible for paid leave under the New Jersey Paid Family Leave Act must use two (2) weeks of vacation/personal days prior to receiving the State benefit.

Such leave shall not exceed one semester or a maximum of six months. The employee shall maintain his/her seniority at the time of the leave but will not accrue additional seniority while on leave. The Hospital will continue to maintain its policy regarding financial assistance for continuing education. If the Hospital modifies this policy it will advise the Union of such prior to any changes.

Section 6.2 All Other Leaves

All regular full-time and part-time .5 FTE or more employees employed for at least one year may be eligible for a leave of absence at the sole discretion of the Hospital. Compensation hereunder shall be provided only for those scheduled workdays that fall between the date of death and the day after the funeral/burial services.

An employee shall be entitled to one (1) day off with pay in the event of the death of any blood aunt, uncle, niece or nephew. Employees who wish to attend the funeral for other relatives may use vacation/personal days which will not be unreasonably denied based on staffing and other operational needs.

The Hospital will not unreasonably deny the use of benefit time or unpaid leave to extend the bereavement leave.

B. Jury Duty

Time off will be granted for the duration of an active employee's required jury duty. Employees will receive their regular hourly rate/ salary for time spent on jury duty that also falls on their regularly scheduled days up to the employee's normal scheduled hours for two-week period (ten working days). If the employee's jury duty obligations extend beyond a two-week period, the employee will be granted unpaid leave for the duration of the jury duty.

shall be limited to the issue of whether or not the employee in question actually engaged in the prohibited activity. If the Arbitrator determines that an employee engaged in activity prohibited under this Article, any disciplinary measures taken by the employer against the employee must be left unmitigated.

Any individual employee who violates this section will be subject to immediate discharge.

If the Union fails to refer the grievance to arbitration within (21) twenty-one calendar days of receipt of the Hospital's Step 3 answer, the grievance shall be considered waived under this Article.

Section 9.2 All grievances given shall refer to the relevant articles of the collective bargaining agreement.

Section 9.3 All grievances shall be in writing and signed by the aggrieved employee or representative. Grievances may not be written on Hospital time.

Section 9.4 Both parties agree to accept the decision of the arbitrator as final and binding. If either party fails to comply with the award of the arbitrator or the procedures of this Article, either party has the right to take all legal action to enforce compliance.

Section 9.5 The arbitrator appointed under the above procedure shall only interpret the provisions of this Agreement and shall have no power to enlarge upon or reduce the obligations of the parties under this Agreement.

Section 9.6 The arbitrator's fee shall be borne equally by the Hospital and the Union.

The day of the occurrence shall not be counted in computing the time limits herein.

Section 9.8 The parties may mutually agree, in writing, to extend any time limits herein.

Section 9.9 Arbitrations shall be limited to a single grievance unless the Hospital and the Union mutually agree to the contrary. A single grievance may include multiple issues involving the same set of facts for the same individual.

ARTICLE 10. VACANCIES

Section 10.1 The Hospital shall post a notice of open bargaining unit positions for (7) calendar days on the main floor human resources bulletin board. Bargaining unit employees shall be given preference for any vacancy over a new hire if they are qualified to perform the job. Applicants for the position will be considered on the basis of seniority, and ability to perform the job. The Hospital, in making its decision, shall award the position to the most senior employee who is qualified to perform the job in the judgment of management.

Section 10.2 Where the term "vacancy" "or vacant position" is used in this agreement, it shall mean an open position that the hospital desires to fill. The hospital shall send a copy of all vacant positions job postings to the union on a monthly basis.

Section 10.3 Following (6) six months of service, employees may apply for posted positions. An Employee who accepts a potential position shall serve a probationary period of (2) two months, which can be extended at the option of the Employer.
