

AFT Nurses and Health Professionals ❤️

Elements of an Effective Labor-Management Health & Safety Committee

Zoom Training for the HPAE Health and Safety Activists

March 24, 2022, 7:00—8:30 PM

Facilitated by Sara Markle-Elder, AFT Health Issues

Advance registration is required. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

<https://aft.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJlofuuhqj0pG9bj4gd38hYNjpfRYAhbgGqJ>

Please join us for an in-depth discussion about effective labor-management safety and health committee meetings. Our discussion will include:

- Understanding the union's right to injury and illness information and how to use it.
- Strategies to foster productive meetings.
- Best practices to achieve health and safety goals, and
- Keeping members informed about the union's hard work.

Contact Hours Awarded: 1.5

Accredited Provider:

The American Federation of Teachers/Nurses and Health Professionals is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation, P#0003.

Conflict of Interest:

This presentation is funded through a subcontract under the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences Cooperative Agreement U45 ES006162 awarded to the International Chemical Workers Council (ICWUC). It is intended strictly for educational purposes for the benefit of AFT members. It is not intended to provide medical advice or diagnosis. All images were found on public websites or credited. The presenters declare there is no conflict of interest.

Learning Outcome:

At the completion of the webinar, 80 percent of the participants will agree or strongly agree that they know the elements of an effective labor-management health and safety committee.

Successful Completion:

The learner must attend 100 percent of the session. After the learner has completed the session, a certificate of attendance, program evaluation/survey must be completed and returned to the provider within 24 hours of the completion of the session.

Contact Hours:

If applicable; contact hours awarded (100% of activity; or missing no more than 10 minutes of activity; attendee with a successful completion (noted above) will be awarded contact hours.